

FILM REVIEW
Individual Writing Project

The Characters:

Write the characters name on each line provided (Use the description to help).

_____	_____	_____
The eleven year old heroine of The Breadwinner . She risks her own life to help her family, even though she just wants to be a normal kid.	He's intelligent and received his education in a different country, which leads to his arrest. Parvana takes courage from his stories.	She's seen her share of hardship, losing her son to a landmine and her husband to prison.
_____	_____	_____
Parvana's older sister.	A young man who once studied under Nurullah. He has zealously taken up the beliefs of the Taliban.	A former schoolmate of Parvana, who is also forced to support her family.

Parvana's family is struggling to survive now that their father is gone. Explain how the laws in their country make it difficult for them to survive.

---

---

---

Explain how the younger females adjust to the laws and become empowered. (Be specific.)

---

---

---

Every evening Parvana tells her little brother the story of the Elephant King. Why is this story significant? Why is the story important and how does it end?

---

---

---

